NEWS! First Lady Michelle Obama recognizes CTE innovation - First Lady Michelle Obama spoke last week at a White House event titled "Celebrating Innovations in Career and Technical Education," which recognized leadership and achievement among career and technical education students and educators from across the country. Check out the full press release to learn more.

Perkins funding bills advance in House and Senate - Recently the House and Senate Appropriations committees approved their education funding bills, with both committees proposing to level funding for the Perkins Basic State Grant at $1.118 billion for FY 2016. Learn more about Perkins on ACTE's CTE Policy Watch Blog.

House Passes Student Success Act to Reauthorize ESEA - Last Wednesday the U.S. House of Representatives passed H.R. 5, the Student Success Act, introduced by House Education and the Workforce Chairman John Klein, R-Minn. The measure, which would reauthorize the Elementary and Secondary Education Act and institute sweeping reforms to federal education policy, sets the stage for future debate as the Senate considers its own ESEA reauthorization legislation. To learn more check out the CTE Policy Watch Blog.

Press and Policymakers Consider Middle School Career Exploration - Education Week published an article on Wednesday, July 15, on the growing efforts in middle schools nationwide to provide students with meaningful career exploration opportunities at an earlier age. Get all the details about the Ed Week article and updates about Senate's Middle STEP Act in ACTE's latest blog post.

Update on Senate ESEA Reauthorization - Last week, the Senate continued to debate and amend the Every Child Achieves Act (S. 1177) -- a bill to reauthorize the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. As we previously reported, the House approved its ESEA reauthorization bill, the Student Success Act (H.R. 5), by a razor thin 218-213 vote two weeks ago. To learn more about ESEA reauthorization, check out ACTE's CTE Policy Watch Blog.

New content standards for Ag Ed - There are updated content standards for the Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources Career Cluster®, recently released by the National Council for Agricultural Education. State and local educators can use these standards to guide the development of curriculum and assessments for AFNR-related CTE programs. To learn more about the new standards, check out ACTE's blog post.

Senate passes ESEA reauthorization bill - On July 16, the Senate overwhelmingly approved the bipartisan Every Child Achieves Act (S. 1177) -- a bill to reauthorize the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). To learn more about this victory for CTE, check out our CTE Policy Watch Blog.

ACTE Kicks off Multi-step Research Project on High-quality CTE

Initiative will identify, share best practices to strengthen student college and career success

Alexandria, VA - The Association for Career and Technical Education (ACTE) today released the first component of a multi-phase research project that seeks to identify and share best practices in high-quality career and technical education (CTE). The paper, titled "Defining High-quality CTE: Contemporary Perspectives on CTE Quality," identifies commonalities among the many voices in the national discussion of high-quality CTE, and lays the groundwork to fuse their ideas into the development of a singular framework that could guide leaders from the education and policy communities in developing the next generation of CTE learning.

Video and transcript of First Lady Michelle Obama’s keynote address at the recent White House Event, "Celebrating Innovations in Career and Technical Education." This was a fantastic opportunity to raise awareness of and support for CTE on a national level! The video can be accessed to stream online or download for offline use here: <https://www.whitehouse.gov/photos-and-video/video/2015/06/30/first-lady-speaks-career-and-technical-education-cte>. # College and Career Ready through CTE

When APPLIED TECHNICAL LEARNING is integrated with RIGOROUS ACADEMICS, students develop the SKILLS NEEDED FOR SUCCESS.

The technical, academic and employability skills that students gain in CTE programs, through CTE courses, work-based learning, career and technical student organizations and dual/concurrent enrollment, are essential for college and career success.

CTE programs prepare students for college and careers:<sup>1</sup>

CTE students demonstrate the academic, technical and employability skills needed for postsecondary and workplace success:

CTSO UPDATE

TSA National Conference - From June 28 to July 2, 2015, 150 Washington TSA Members joined over 6,500 TSA members in Grapevine, Texas, for the 2015 TSA National Conference at the Gaylord Texan Resort and Conference Center. Washington Students earned 22 top 10 finishes in a variety of contests that tested their Technical, Leadership, and Employability skills in a variety of STEM areas. In addition to these results, our State President Haeley Johnston from Mountlake Terrace High School was honored with the Dr. Bob Hanson Distinguished Student Award. This is highest award a student can earn within the Technology Student Association. We are extremely proud of Haeley and all that she has done for TSA.
