Last week I took advantage of Super Bowl weekend and the focus of all the 12s in our state to compare the work of a successful football team to the success of CTE in Washington State, primarily around the need to assure CTE enhanced funding is in the new 2015-2017 Biennial Budget.

As you all must know by now, the Governor's proposed 2015-2017 budget did not contain enhanced funding for CTE and did not incorporate recommendations from the OSPI CTE and Skill Center Program Funding, Accounting, & Data Reporting presented June 1, 2014.

Without the enhanced funding for CTE, directors in the field are projecting that CTE programs around the state will rapidly diminish over time unless corrected! And this is the year and legislative session to have that correction happen.

So, to continue with a few analogies from the pre-Super Bowl WOVE issued last week, let me share the game plan that we are sticking to, which requires all of us to engage in the legislative process at all levels of our ability. This is vital to ensure a victory for all of the students we serve through CTE programs statewide.

Start with the "CTE12s"...

In CTE we have our 12s in the form of former students, parents, industry partners, and local community support. What we need is for all of our "CTE12s" to show up weekly and get the message of how important this is to the whole legislature this year!

Just like the Hawks who have the 12s and recognize the importance of having them "in the game" with them every week we need YOU to become a SUPER 12 and rally up all of your local CTE fans to join you in contacting their legislative members.

Most legislative members have Facebook and Twitter accounts for connecting with citizens of the state. So call, email, Facebook, Tweet, Instagram, and/or visit their office to deliver this message for CTE:

For phone, short email messages, and Facebook posts:

"We ask that you support the enhanced CTE funding asked for by OSPI and being promoted by the Washington Association for Career and Technical Education to correct CTE & Skill Center MSOC funding by asking your caucus budget writers to reinstate the MSOC multiplier along with other recommendations. Further information and suggested budget language is available from Tim Knue, Executive Director of the Washington Association for Career and Technical Education."

For Twitter & Instagram...use @WashCTE and #CTE12s:

"Return CTE enhanced funding to the Washington State budget for student career success! @WashCTE...and your legislators Twitter handle."

Our Theme: "I've Got Your Back" ...

Every week the Seahawks had a theme and a focus for that week's game even after the stunning turn of events and loss in the last 20 seconds of the Super Bowl they went from "I've got your back" to "We are in this together." This is their commitment to a greater/higher purpose, which has produced the best team in football!

We know we have the "best" game in town for our CTE students and our purpose is to connect with and help them find their passion in programs that give them the skills they need to be successful in careers and life.

Think back...how many times have you told a student that you are here to help them no matter what...a true sense of "I've got your back" and "We are in this together"!

We need to have that same sense of a higher purpose for our CTE programs in the state. We are in this together whether you like it or not! In order to win our super bowl - the return of enhanced funding for CTE - we need to ALL have each other's back by making some form of contact with your legislators EACH WEEK until we successfully return enhanced funding for CTE back to the budget.

Let's get each other's back, get in the advocacy game, ask others to join us, and step up our game to continue to provide high quality CTE programs that our students deserve each day, each year!

Remember that feeling at the end of the game...

We can't afford to have that feeling at the end of this legislative session!

While the analogy of a "game" has its sense of poetry and fun...we must know this is not a game; this is real life and this is politics...the kind of politics that will have very real world effects on your CTE program and a real effect on the future for your students. Will it be positive or negative?

Just like football with a game each week you need to be contacting your legislative members weekly until they let you know they are in full support of CTE enhanced funding and will join in asking their leadership and budget writers to include the CTE funding enhancement in the final operating budget.

You need to know how powerful this type of contact is...when I stop by for an office visit and the legislative aide says that they have been hearing from their constituents back home it is music to my ears. It lets me know the "12s for CTE" are out there! It is so powerful to have that connection to a local program in their district when I walk into their offices to discuss CTE funding and the need to be in the budget.

Please take the time to contact and share with your legislative members how important it is for them to understand and ask their budget writing leadership to include the CTE funding proposal from OSPI.

(Be sure to NOT use school district time or equipment to make those contacts to avoid PDC liability.)

1st Quarter Highlights...

The CTE12s have been stepping up and working it this week. WELL DONE BY ALL! Please share your contact stories with me as they happen.

- Over 350 CTE students and adults were in Olympia on Wednesday and canvased the legislators' offices, even pulling members off the floor to talk with members directly. Superintendent Dorn, Senator Schoesler, and Governor Inslee spoke directly to the group in the morning and each of their messages were well received.
- The Governor visited Puget Sound Skill Center in Burien on Wednesday and Yelm School District to visit their CTE programs. It was reported that the CTE funding issue was brought up and our information was shared with the Governor's staff.
- One very articulate FFA member at the Farm Bureau Day on Tuesday very directly asked Senators at their meeting what they were going to do about CTE funding. That got back to me by way of one of the Senators, who had a real sense of pride in our youth for being so assertive in a positive way.
